

Temples & Havelis of old Jaipur

Join us on this exciting walking tour of Jaipur; a unique way to explore the living traditions of the city. Experience the religious life of local communities by visiting colourful temples, interact with residents over tea and snacks in their home and discover some of the architectural wonders of this fascinating aspect of Jaipur.

This walk has been carefully designed to offer a rewarding and enriching experience for our guests. Uncovering some of the best kept secrets of the walled city of Jaipur we take pride in sharing a warm association with the resident artisans, shop owners, temple priests and local citizens. This association makes our walking tours more engaging; our clients have a genuinely interactive experience getting to meet the residents and as a result gain an insight into traditional ways of life.

Significant highlights include

- ❖ Visit Sri Chaturbhuj and Roop Chaturbhuj both grand old temple situated at “Choti Chauper” the city square. As old as the city their elevated location provides excellent views of the surrounding area.
- ❖ Visit Somani Haveli a beautifully restored building belonging to one of the prominent jeweller families of the city.
- ❖ Visit a private Tantra Temple with beautifully carved doors and rare pictures of old Jaipur. Few foreigners have seen the 11 shiva lingams housed in this temple that are used during tantric ritual.

- ❖ Shri Gopinath Ji Krishna Temple – A lively and busy temple where the morning Aarti is a lively and noisy spectacle.
- ❖ Visit a Rajput family in their Haveli home, Bagru Ki Haveli and join them for early morning tea and traditional Indian snacks.
- ❖ “Ramchandra Temple” Dedicated to Lord Ram. This ancient Temple is decorated with beautiful frescos including a gold painting of the City Palace.
